

Please do NOT change the ownership rules of the FCC. Our very democracy depends on diversity in the media. At the very least you can give more time to hear our many voices. You must listen to the people if you want to be respected by them. Or don't you care? Patricia Richard-Amato